The new Compendium website

We are pleased to announce the launch of the renewed Culturalpolicies.net on Thursday, December 5th 2019!

After redeveloping our methodological structure in 2019, we worked hard to develop a new website for the vast amount of resources, statistics, comparisons and – the Compendium's core – cultural policy profiles.

Since being founded in 1998 by ERICarts and the Council of Europe, the Compendium of Cultural Policies & Trends has evolved into a dynamic community of researchers, policy makers and officers, cultural ministries and institutions. It is our vision that the renewed website is a user-friendly cultural policy tool for this community – be it to research trends or compare cultural policy in Europe.

We would especially like to thank the Compendium's stakeholder members who have made the redevelopment possible, as well as our research community for their knowledge and expertise.
