

Open Call for Expert for:
LUXEMBOURG

for the online information and monitoring system
COMPENDIUM OF CULTURAL POLICIES AND TRENDS

Deadline for applications: 16th August 2021

About the Compendium

The Compendium of Cultural Policies and Trends is a unique reference work on cultural policies and related developments available at Culturalpolicies.net. This platform publishes the cultural policy and legal information of as many as 43 different countries, and provides analysis on trends, new challenges and debates.

The Compendium reaches a broad range of policy makers and administrators, cultural institutions and networks, researchers and documentation professionals, journalists and students. The available online information and data serves to inform decision-making processes, comparative policy research (analyses) and the exchange of good practice models.

About the position

Compendium content is researched and written by independent cultural policy experts. They work in consultation with government specialists and advisors, at arm's length, and incorporate user feedback. The information presented in the country profiles is derived from a variety of sources including: research studies, government documents and official reports, statements of advocacy groups, important testimonies from artists and cultural producers, political campaigns, the media, etc. Final editing is executed by the staff of the Compendium Coordinator, the Kulturpolitische Gesellschaft in Bonn (Germany). Together, all contributors to the Compendium can be seen as a community of experts.

Role and qualifications of the expert

Experts:

- are responsible for the content of the country profiles (in collaboration with the Compendium Coordinator)
- are in some cases supported in their tasks by Contributing Experts;
- will receive a fee for their work to be defined by the editors of the project. (This fee can be shared with Contributing Experts.)

Selection criteria include

- a) A professional background and experience in cultural policy research. Priority will be given to experts who have been involved in this field at national and international level for at least 5 years.
- b) High proficiency in spoken and written English. [Experts must be able to actively follow and contribute to Compendium meetings and exchanges with other country experts]; (the drafting of the country profile of Luxembourg may be done in French).
- c) Availability to travel to short annual Meetings and willingness to engage in ad-hoc collective, methodological and content-related online Compendium work.
- d) Ability to prepare and regularly update analytical national profile information, including: inter alia cultural policy developments and their diverse interpretations in public life, the latest legal and financial data, good practices related to specific policy issues, trend analyses, etc.
- e) Confidence and ability to draw on a vast body of knowledge and to act as a liaison person to national authorities that oversees the Compendium project (e.g. Ministry of Culture officials and specialised public bodies such as statistical and research institutes).
- f) Strong editing and communication capacities. This includes the ability to speak the languages of governments / policy makers and academia as well as interact effectively with the Compendium Coordinator and other community members with their various cultural backgrounds. Priority will be given to experts that possess content strategy skills; who enjoy thinking as 'foreign correspondents' and like to submit ideas for relevant current affairs contributions.

Financial conditions

Subject to the availability of funding, Experts receive a fixed fee from the Compendium editors channelled through the Compendium Coordinator for the (annual) work on their national Compendium profile. In some countries, this fee may be complemented by national governments through financial or in-kind contributions. Travel expenses for the attendance at annual Experts' Meetings will be covered by respective national governments and / or by the experts themselves if they are part of a national government or an institution providing for travel fees.

About the Open Call procedure

Calls of interest for the position of Expert for the Compendium are issued when:

- a country intends to join the system and a new profile has to be prepared;
- the current Expert announces that he or she wishes to resign;
- Experts cannot provide a sufficient update of a country profile during a period of two years or more. In such cases, the Compendium Coordinator will first try to assist experts in their efforts to have Compendium content updated.

Selection process

All applications received in reply to this call for interest will be examined before 30th August 2021 by the Compendium's Board and Coordinator. A review will be made of the candidate's public standing and of his or her submitted portfolio, after which the candidate will be informed whether his or her candidacy will be submitted for approval during the Association's next General Assembly.

How to apply

Please send your application to the Compendium Coordinator's managing team Ulrike Blumenreich and Oliver Goebel at: blumenreich@kupoge.de; goebel@kupoge.de before the 16th August 2021, by using the application form.

A confirmation of your application will be sent shortly after its submission.
