

Online panel discussion on "What is our crisis and how do we deal with it?"

What are the current crises of culture in Europe? Which solutions already exist and which still need to be developed? These questions will be discussed from academia and cultural policy makers in the context of an online panel discussion on May 10, 17:30-19:00 (CEST).

Our guests for the panel discussion "What is our crisis and how do we deal with it?" are:

- Else Christensen-Redzepovic, Goethe-Institut Brüssel/Voices of Culture (Belgium)
- Milena Dragičević-Šešić, University of Arts in Belgrade (Serbia)
- Isabelle Schwarz of the European Cultural Foundation (Netherlands)
- Moderation: Christoph Jankowski, British Council (United Kingdom)

Save the date! 4th General Assembly on the 15th September

The 4th General Assembly of the Compendium Association will take place on the 15th September 2021 as a digital event due to the difficult circumstances caused by COVID-19.

The Compendium community consists of members of the Compendium Association, the Association's board, the Compendium's experts and the Compendium Coordinator. This dedicated and passionate group of cultural policy experts and Compendium supporters meet once a year during the General Assembly of the Compendium Association to discuss the recent and future plans for the Compendium as cultural policy information system and monitoring tool.

More information will follow in the upcoming newsletters

Updated COVID-19 report from the Netherlands

An updated COVID-19 report from the Netherlands is now available. It presents recent governmental support measures regarding for example the compensation of performing arts productions, the expanded general support and a guarantee fund for events.

Additionally new resources can be found in our resource section on COVID-19, such as the EU research study from the Cultural Relations Platform on the "Assesment of the impact of COVID-19 on the CCS in the EU partner countries".
